Immune
By Floria Sigismondi

"THE EARTH'S VAST SURROUNDINGS ARE FULL OF MANMADE INFECTIONS... GOOD AND BAD THESE INFECTIONS HAVE VIOLATED AND TRANSFORMED OUR BODIES AND SENSES IN ONE FORM OR ANOTHER... IMMUNE IS A DISCOVERY OF THE NEW 'BODY ' SURVIVING ITS ENVIRONMENT FULL OF SCIENTIFIC MANIPULATION, RELIGIOUS MANIPULATION AND SOCIAL MANIPULATION...".

Floria Sigismondi is a multi-disciplinary artist whose photography, videos, films and sculptures have had a major impact on contemporary visual culture. Six years after we released her first book Redemption, we are publishing Immune, a second collection of Sigismondi's groundbreaking images that reflect the evolution and diversity of her recent work.

Immune features a remarkable blend of new photos including previously unreleased footage from the prize-winning video clips she has created for music acts including Christina Aguilera, the Cure, Incubus, Björk, Leonard Cohen and the Living Things. These are complimented by more personal artistic images and self-portraits.

The bizarre, otherworldly look that Sigismondi has become famous for is still clearly recognizable, but Immune also highlights the range of her creative vision. In addition to presenting classic images, the book shows work that is subtler and at times irreverently critical of current politics.
